

Recommended literature for self-training in the discipline "epidemiology and principles of evidence-based medicine", 5th year

Basic literature

1. Epidemiology of infectious disease: manual / M. T. Gafarova. – Simferopol, 2018.

– 228 p.

2. Infectious disease : textbook / O. A. Holubovska, M. A. Andreichyn, Shkurba et al.; edited by O. A. Holubovska.

–
Kyiv
: AUS
Medicine
Publishing, 2018.

– 664

p

3. General Epidemiology : study guide / N.O. Vynograd. — 2nd ed., corrected. — Kyiv : AUS Medicine Publishing,

Literature

Written by Infection

Monday, 11 January 2021 12:33 - Last Updated Tuesday, 27 September 2022 23:56

2018. —

128

p.

Additional literature

1. Modern Epidemiology, 4th edition / TL Lash, TJ Vander Weele, S Haneuse, KJ Rothman. Wolters Kluwer, 2021.

—

1250

p.

2. Introduction to Epidemiology. 3rd edition / Ilona Carneiro. Milton Keynes, United Kingdom, 2017. -

306

p.

Information resources

Official website of the Ministry of Health of Ukraine - access mode: <http://www.moz.gov.ua>

Literature

Written by Infection

Monday, 11 January 2021 12:33 - Last Updated Tuesday, 27 September 2022 23:56

WHO official website - access mode: <http://www.who.int>

Cochrane Community. Open materials for training - access mode:
<http://www.cochrane-net.org/openlearning/>

Medline database of the US National Library of Medicine - access mode:
<http://www.pubmed.gov;>

Oxford Centre for Evidence-based Medicine - access mode: <http://www.cebm.net/>