

Internship objective

Written by Infection

Monday, 03 January 2022 02:00 - Last Updated Monday, 03 January 2022 08:17

The purpose of the internship is a primary specialty physicians with infectious diseases, their practical training and professional development for independent medical practice in the infectious sections of hospitals and offices of infectious diseases clinics. This is a mandatory form of postgraduate training, after which they receive the title of doctor-infectious disease.

Duration - 1.5 years (full-time cycle of 1,560 hours).

Contingent - doctors, interns who have completed higher medical educational institutions of III-IV accreditation levels.

To join the training in the specialty of infectious disease need to first of August to the dean FPMO following documents:

- copy of diploma of higher education;
- copy of the certificate Step-2;
- copy of passport;
- copy of the identification code;
- ticket UOZ and travel (for budgetary learning) or an agreement with SSU (for contract learning).