

Cooperation

Written by Infection

Friday, 19 January 2024 02:00 - Last Updated Friday, 19 January 2024 11:56

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION department includes a number of components - international clinical trials, participation in research and conferences, scientific and educational activities.

Department staff participate in international clinical trials:

- 1) protocol TMC125IFD3002 (open study to evaluate the safety, tolerability and pharmacokinetics of the drug etraviryn in combination with other antiretroviral drugs for patients infected with HIV-1 who received antiretroviral therapy , IV phase ; (Tibotec, Ireland)
- 2) protocol T705aUS316 (randomized, double-blind, placebo -controlled, multicenter study 3ed phase efficacy and safety favipiraviru in patients with uncomplicated influenza («MDVI, LLC», USA)

Has established cooperation with several scientific institutions in Ukraine and abroad :

- Ternopil State Medical University . I. Gorbachevskogo ;
- DU Research Institute of Influenza RAMS (clinical and epidemiological features of influenza at present)
- Switzerland, Aarau Konton , regional clinical hospital (treatment of hepatitis, HIV);
- ESCMID (European Society for Infectious Diseases) - Nice , Barcelona , Munich (modern areas of diagnosis and treatment of common infectious diseases)
- Academisch Medisch Centrum Universiteit van Amsterdam - Centre for Parasitology (therapeutic and diagnostic work in human parasitic diseases);
- Moscow Central Research Institute of Epidemiology and Infectious Diseases (modern areas of diagnosis and treatment of common infectious diseases);
- 2nd Medical Institute , Department of Infectious Diseases , St. Petersburg (Contemporary approaches to the diagnosis and treatment of acute and chronic viral hepatitis complicated by liver failure);
- Moscow hepatological center (clinical and epidemiological characteristics of viral hepatitis at present).