

Art therapy - is not only skills but also creativity. Important role in the formation of harmonious personality plays a research work.

In the Students' Scientific Society Department of Infectious Diseases has 32 students, 12 postgraduates, undergraduates 2 and 3 clinical residents. Our achievements - 9 diplomas and degree of nationwide conferences, diplomas of the first, second, second and third stages of the first nationwide student research, awards, and the second and third stages of the first Ukrainian student's Olympiad 'Infectious diseases '.

The training process is widely used in various forms of research. In recent years carried out and develop the following forms of research:

-

Conference of students and young researchers;

-

The creation of videos with the formation of the department video library;

-

Slide presentations;

-

Creation of modern testing programs;

-

Solving clinical and situational tasks;

-

Supervision of patients;

-

Clinical and instrumental examination of patients in completing medical by hospital;

-

Duty in the clinic;

-

Experimental studies;

-

Publishing articles and abstracts.